The image shows a repeating pattern on a light gray background. It consists of a grid of squares, with some squares filled with a darker gray color. The grid is composed of 6 columns and 6 rows. The squares in the first, third, and fifth columns are filled with the darker gray color. The squares in the second, fourth, and sixth columns are white. On the left side of the image, there is a vertical line with six circles, each centered on a horizontal grid line. The circles are white with a thin gray outline.
